6. Architectural Description:

Type of Structure: _____

(Original purpose)

Date of Construction: (Please check the correct time period)

Pre-1700 1701-1750 1751-1800 1801-1850 1851-1900 1901-Present

Associated buildings e.g. barns, carriage house, spring house, corn crib... with a brief description of each:

This description should include: building materials (foundation, walls and roof), number of stories, general dimensions: length of bays (number of windows and door openings), depth of rooms, sections in which it was built (sketch of floor plan is excellent), additions, window and door placement, chimney placement, original exterior features, etc. The description should be complete enough that the building is not confused with another. Use extra pages if necessary.

7. Historical Significance:

State facts of historical importance locally, to the county, state, or nation. As this is a county register, emphasis is placed on local and county-wide significance. You should consider the building for its architecture, how it served the community (e.g. mill, school, shop), notable events which took place in the building, notable persons who lived, worked or stayed in the building and community traditions which the building represents. Some categories to consider: archaeology, architecture, commerce, education, engineering, industry, landscape architecture, military, religion, transportation, etc. Use extra pages if necessary.

8. Chain of Title:

9. Photographs:

Submit at least two (2) color standard size photos (3-1/2" x 5"), or two digital photos jpg files of different views of the exterior. It is preferable to have pictures taken at opposite corners of the building showing two sides each. A photograph of each exterior façade and of the notable interior features (mantle, paneling, doors, hardware, etc.) is ideal. All photos must be labeled with property name and location, tax map number and date of photo.

Note: the photographs submitted will be placed in the Historical Society's permanent archives and will not be returned.

10. Application and Research Fee:

A fee of $85.00 is required to cover the cost of processing the application. The Cumberland County Historical Society is a non-profit organization whose major sources of revenue are memberships and fund-raising activities. Non-profit organizations may apply to have this fee waved. Please contact the committee for more information.
